CONSENT FORM

I, (please print your name) _____, hereby give my consent for my below-listed child (the "Performer") to perform music at "Clarinet Christmas" at the National Gallery of Art (the "National Gallery") on Saturday, December 12, 2026. I further consent to and authorize the National Gallery to identify the Performer, by full name, as a performer at the National Gallery. I agree that neither I nor the Performer shall use the National Gallery's name in any way in any media with regard to this performance without the prior written consent of the National Gallery, except that the Performer may state that he/she/they have performed or are scheduled to perform at the National Gallery.

I additionally give my consent for the National Gallery, or other entities authorized by the National Gallery, to use for any purpose, without compensation and in any media (including on the National Gallery's or third party websites), any and all recordings (including photographs, video, or audio) of or including me and/or the Performer taken by the National Gallery (or its authorized agents or contractors) during the aforementioned performance. I acknowledge and agree that the National Gallery will own all rights, title, and interest, including copyright, in such recordings. I (on behalf of myself and the Performer) hereby release the National Gallery (and any entities authorized by the National Gallery to use such recordings) from all claims and liability relating to such recordings.

I am the parent or legal guardian of the Performer, and I have full authority to grant the consent and authorizations set forth herein.
